Subject: Mr/Mrs Bloggs- Reference Number: HG123BC5

Dear Mr/Mrs Bloggs

Complaint Reference Number: HG123BC5
Your complaint has now been reviewed.

You've discovered that your home address has been used without your permission on the Companies House register. After contacting Companies House to report and remove this information, you were dissatisfied with how your concerns were handled. Following our investigation, we acknowledge that your personal data was published without your consent, and our response did not meet the expected standard.
We apologise for the distress and inconvenience this has caused. We have removed your address from the public register and are reviewing our internal processes to prevent similar issues in future.

If you are not satisfied with this response, you can ask for us to review it. This will escalate your case to our Head of Complaints, who will complete a full case review and provide you with a final response. Ask us to review our response to an existing complaint – GOV.UK

Yours sincerely,

John Doe
